

90% of respondents rated the day as good or excellent.

38 feedback forms received from a possible 46

Very enjoyable!

Learnt lots!

Very interesting group of delegates from a wide and diverse range.

Excellent day

Proforma very useful

Thank you. A very worthwhile day.

What attracted you to the conference?

The majority of delegates stated that they had:

- A current need to put together business case for service and wanted:

- To learn practical skills of compiling the business case for commissioners
- To understand in greater depth what commissioners want to know and are likely to agree to fund in rehab.
- An opportunity to look at business planning from all perspectives in the changing NHS environment.

Talks

Talks were rated on a scale of 0 – 8 (where 0 is poor and 8 is excellent) for their relevance to the delegate, their interest and an overall rating.

Planning your business case: Tony Smith

Tony Smith received good feedback, with an average score of 5.6

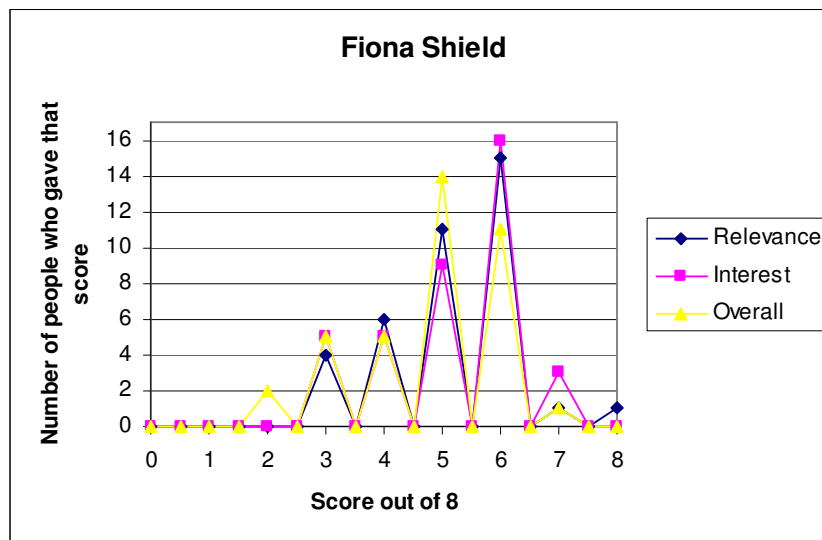

Good basic overview/refresher of info already known

Introduction to the 4 stages of workforce design: Fiona Shield

Fiona Shield received good feedback with an average score of 5.0

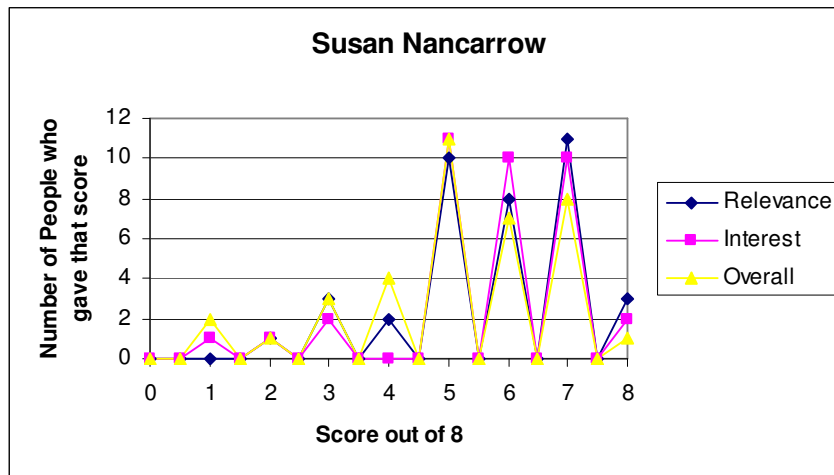

Very interesting

Evidence for staffing requirements: Susan Nancarrow

Susan Nancarrow received good feedback, with an average score of 5.5

Well presented

Learning about return on investment: Daniel Mason

Daniel Mason received very good feedback with an average score of 6.5/8

Good useful practical information and well presented.

